Need a reason to get outdoors and appreciate winter's beauty? Exercise your natural creativity in Brodhead Watershed Association's "Water in Winter" photo contest!

Photographers are invited to submit beautiful images depicting water in winter – frozen waterfalls, ice formations, winter fishing and more. There are countless possibilities when the weather is right, so bundle up, get outside, and get creative! All submitted photos will have a chance to be featured in BWA's Get Outdoors Poconos campaign, across BWA's social media and on BWA's website with proper credit given to the photographer.

All ages and families are encouraged to participate.

Please send no more than ONE photo submission to info@brodheadwatershed.org.

1. All submission emails must include the location of photo, other detail (such as trail name, waterfall name, etc.) and date taken.
2. All submission emails must include photographer's first name, last name, and email.
3. Please attach no more than ONE eligible photograph to your email.
